MEET THE FOUNDERS

Gretchen Heinen

Gretchen is committed to teaching young, culturally diverse Christians how to create multiple streams of income while still being present for life and have high well-being.

Gretchen is the founder of the Net Worth It School, the leading place to turn ideas into legacy businesses and overcome financial limiting beliefs. She is a foster, bio and step mom and believes that love, not DNA, defines family. She allows God to lead her businesses and believes our true potential unleashes when we take our spiritual callings and execute on them.

Rachel G. Scott

As a writer, speaker, and entrepreneur, Rachel has been featured nationally and internationally on television, podcast, radio, devotionals, and blogs. She is now represented by WordServe Literary Agency as she prepares to traditionally publish her future books.

Rachel is the Founder of the I Can't Come Down Movement, an organization dedicated to helping women walk in their purpose and assignment with focus especially writers and business owners. She is a former Huffington post contributor and current Youversion and Moody Radio Cleveland Partner.

Helping You Move The Needle Forward

Do you feel like you get to the end of your day and have accomplished NOTHING?

YOU ARE NOT ALONE.

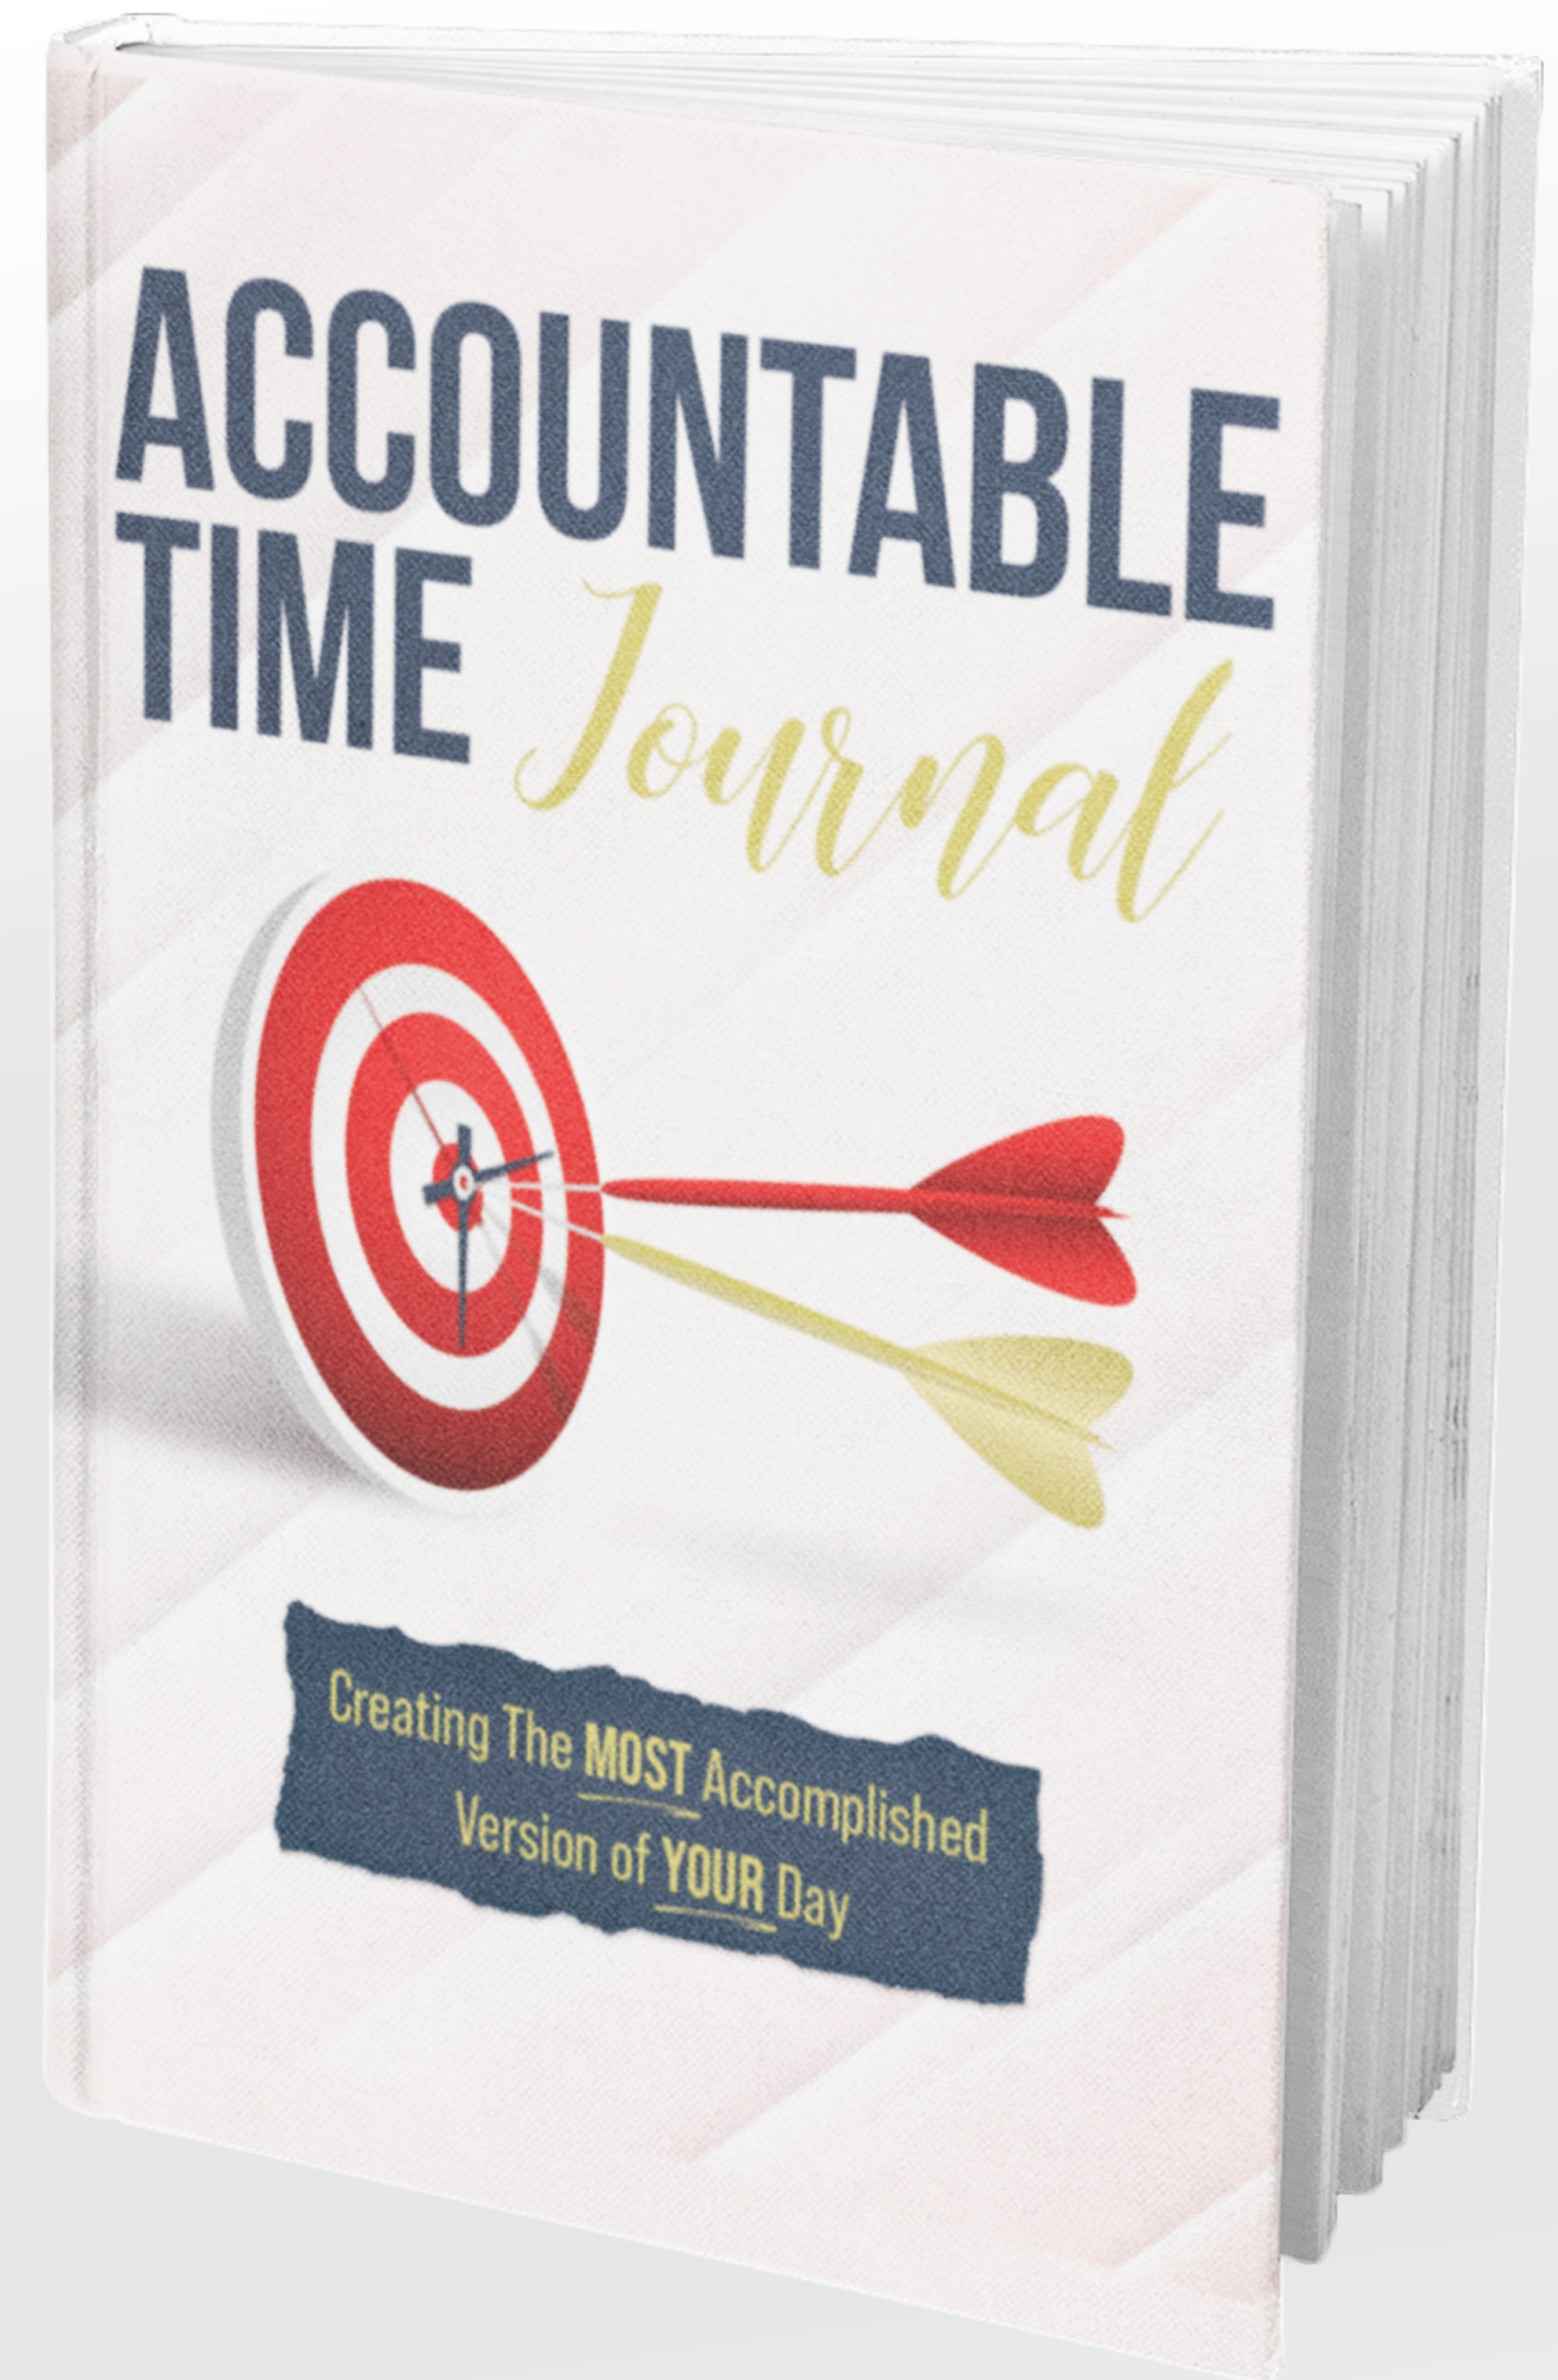

Thousands of women feel this way.

After trying to homeschool, do the dishes FOR THE HUNDREDTH time, make the meals, work, walk the dog, spend time with your husband, there isn't much left in the tank to move your dreams forward.

THIS JOURNAL IS FOR YOU!

You know what you need to do but you don't always have the belief and energy to make it happen.

Are you a Writer that needs to capture stories so that you can to share with them with the world?

As a writer, your assignment is to write as if it were happening for the first time because, to your readers, it is. Choose to steward the gift of time, memories, and moments through your gift of writing.

We may have intentions to be a hoarder of the gift of memories, but our human nature makes that an impossible task to fulfill.

The purpose of this journal is for you to capture as many moments as possible before the memory of the details becomes vague, scattered, and unclear. Grab your journal today
